"Port Arthur" Luxury Coach Tour & Cruise

A full day of discovery of Australia's colonial and convict past onboard your full day luxury coach & cruise. Cross the high, elegant Tasman Bridge over the river Derwent and see massive tidal waterways. See fertile farm lands, many with honesty boxes and roadside fruit stalls with tree fresh produce at pyo prices as you pass! Pass through country townships, Sorrell, Dunally; then cross the isthmus to the Forester Peninsula, Murdenra, the famous oceanside Tessellated Pavement and pristine Pirates Bay before crossing the Eaglehawk Neck to the Tasman Peninsula and skirting Norfolk Bay.

Take a guided walking tour of the historic convict site at Port Arthur; hear the story of the harsh times and access over 30 ruins and restored buildings. See the beautiful remains of the ancient church, the penitentiary that was once a flour mill and a granary, the Commandant's House and the separate prison. Cruise Carnarvon Bay and hear the story of the Isle of the Dead. Hear stories of early settlers, families who lived and worked in the convict settlement and hear tales of the hard lives of the convicts consigned to the remote prison and the many 'lives' of the buildings, convict built ruins and industries constructed in Port Arthur, once a crowded and busy place in the 1860's. Delight in the elegant Georgian landscapes, with ancient oak trees aside picket fences and long sweeping drives with quaint cottages, pretty gardens and an awesome array of colourful exotic trees in season. Be astounded at the massive size of the Devil's Kitchen. Take in highlights of Tasman National Park; have superb views of the Tasman Arch. See sweeping views of rugged coastline and pretty rolling countryside.

"Cadbury Chocolate Factory" Luxury Coach Tour

Tour through north Hobart on your luxury coach before visiting the Cadbury Chocolate Factory to discover how chocolates are made, see chocolates being moulded and enjoy tasting raw materials. See Constitution Dock with sails and masts ahoy; be introduced to Hobart's original honey coloured railway station, now the ABC Buildings in Hobart town. Pass beautiful Government House, a fine example of early Victorian country houses. With exceptional exterior features, such as hand carved chimney pots it is now recognised as the best Vice Regal residences in the Commonwealth, with 73 rooms some in Jacobean and Elizabethan style. Government House dates back to 1857 and has been occupied by the Governor of Tasmania since the time in 1858 when Sir Henry Fox Young became the first resident. Drive along the wide sweep of Montrose Bay and on to Claremont and a tasty treat! Thrill to the story of the history of the Cadbury Chocolate empire, which grew from a single shop opened in England by a young Quaker man, when 22 year old John Cadbury from the West of England to become one of the world's most recognised brands and one of the worlds favourite treats. Learn of the chocolate manufacturing process. Taste FREE samples and perhaps take the opportunity to buy chocolate delights direct from the factory, before returning back to your Hobart hotel.

"Mount Wellington Summit" Luxury Coach Tour

Experience the panoramic spectacle of Hobart, its suburbs and various waterways from the 1.2km high summit of Mount Wellington. Tour through south Hobart in your luxury coach: Be awed by St David's Park, designed and laid out in 1926 and dedicated to the freemen and convicts who helped to grow Australia, see plaques dedicated to those hearty souls who came with Captain Phillips on the First Fleet in 1788 and many other evocative stones; see lions carved in a tent on a footpath in 1884 and in recent years gifted to the people of Hobart. Visit Battery Point, the old military site and now complete with historic cottages and homes, boutiques and shops. See Australia's oldest army facility at Anglesea Barracks and at South Hobart see fine examples of early homes of early settlers in Hobart. Sight Cascade Valley, the home of the famous Cascade Brewery and the gardens and then pretty Ferntree, a mountain township. Be thrilled as your comfortable coach gradually climbs the 1270 metres tall MT Wellington which the indigenous people call Unghbanyahletta or Poorawetter. See massive rock formation of the Organ Pipes. Learn how Mount Wellington was formed. Follow in the footsteps of Charles Darwin, who climbed in 1836 as you view Hobart laid out before you on a clear day with panoramic views of Bruny Island, the Tasman Peninsula and South Arm from atop Mt Wellington; experience rainforest then glacial rock formations and sub-alpine flora on different levels of the massive mountain. Pick out the places you have visited from the top; see the waterways of Hobart and surrounds and be amazed at how high you have ventured! Visit the remains of the onetime female factory prison and Macquarie Street, Hobart's CBD. What a great
